

FIXING TARIFF

The Senate after again refusing to restrict tariff revision to agricultural products is ready to undertake the task of fixing individual schedules.

The Times-Picayune

THE WEATHER

Fair Tuesday and Wednesday. Light to fresh northerly winds. Highest temperature Monday 73, lowest 64.

VOLUME XCIII—NO. 271

Issued Every Morning at 601-615 North St.
BY THE TIMES-PICAYUNE PUBLISHING CO.
Founded January 25, 1837

NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1929

Entered N. O. Postoffice as Second Class
Matter Under Act of March 3, 1879.

SINGLE COPY 5 CENTS

M. D. DIMITRY DIES AT SHREVEPORT

Body Will Be Brought to New Orleans for Funeral and Burial

Shreveport, La., Oct. 21.—M. D. Dimitry, local attorney, died this afternoon from pneumonia and heart disease at the age of 55 years. He had been ill since Friday when he entered a sanitarium. The body will be taken tonight to New Orleans, where funeral services will be held and interment made in Metairie cemetery.

Mr. Dimitry was born, in New Orleans in 1874, son of the late Theodore J. Dimitry. He moved to Shreveport about ten years ago, and since had engaged in the practice of law. His mother, Mrs. T. J. Dimitry, was at the bed side when he died. Others surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Clino Beauvais of New Orleans, and Mrs. James Manning of Bogalusa, and two brothers, John Dimitry of Washington, D. C., and Dr. T. J. Dimitry of New Orleans.