

The Daily

Picayune.

VOL. LXVII.

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1903.—

TEEN PAGES.—

NO. 49.

DIMITRY ACQUITTED.

The Jury in the case of United States vs. A. J. Dimitry, accused of having abstracted a valuable package from the mails while in the employ of Station C, of the New Orleans Postoffice, as clerk, evidently indorsed the defense of irresponsibility due to chronic indulgence in alcoholics and narcotics, for, after the case was argued and submitted yesterday, a verdict of not guilty was found.
